

Scottish Training Federation

Chief Executive – Part-time

The Scottish Training Federation (STF) represents over 130 organisations operating in the field of work-based training across Scotland. STF members comprise a broad mix of independent training providers, group training associations, colleges, local authority training departments and other stakeholder organisations.

The majority of STF members are involved in the delivery of government funded training including Foundation, Modern & Graduate Apprenticeships and employability programmes in Scotland.

The position is part time (3 days per week) and is home based.

Candidates should possess an in-depth understanding of vocational training, particularly government funded programmes and have strong leadership skills. They should also have a strong desire to make a difference by representing the interests of STF members in the political sphere. Candidates should be keen negotiators with a flair for diplomacy and be able to champion and support STF members amidst a background of changing political and funding priorities.

Salary: circa £35,000, plus pension.

Please send a CV and covering letter to info@stf.org.uk

The closing date for applications is Monday 28 September 2026.
